DATA PRIVACY POLICY

Pursuant to the Spanish Personal Data Protection Act ("Act 15/1999, dated 13 December"), personal data means "any information relating to identified or identifiable individuals".

You are hereby informed that the personal data accessed by TechRules, S.A. ("TechRules") as a result of the enquiries, transactions, operations, applications, purchase of products and/or services made by you on www.mytadvisor.com (the "Website") or of computer processes regarding data already registered shall be stored in the relevant database owned by TechRules and you hereby authorise TechRules to process such data as may be necessary for use in connection with the performance of the transaction or service.

TechRules shall only have access to the personal data voluntarily provided by you. To access and use TechRules products and/or services, you will be requested to provide certain personal data. If you fail to do so, you will not be able to access or use the products and/or services.

This Website collects statistical information about you by storing "cookies" ("Cookies") on the hard disk of your computer. Such information does not directly identify and is not capable of directly identifying you in any way. Nevertheless, the Cookies may allow for you to be directly identified when used in conjunction with the personal data provided during your registration process. TechRules shall use the collected information to gain more knowledge about the activity of visitors to the Website, in order to improve the Website and increase the effectiveness of their on-line experience. This paragraph does not apply to Website access through a mobile device.

You may choose to prevent Cookies from being installed in your computer by selecting the relevant option in your browser settings, although if you disable Cookies, it may adversely affect the proper functioning of the Website. This paragraph does not apply to Website access through a mobile device.

TechRules has implemented all the technical, organisational and security measures set forth in applicable regulations in order to maintain the required level of security, according to the nature of the personal data processed and the circumstances of such processing, and to prevent, insofar as possible and at all times in accordance with the technological state of the art, the alteration, loss or unauthorised processing or access of personal data.

You are legally entitled to access, correct, delete and, if applicable, oppose the processing of your personal data and you may exercise such rights by sending a written request to TechRules' Customer Service Department at the following address:

TechRules, S.A.
Servicio de Atención al Cliente
Calle Cáceres, 2-A
28223-Pozuelo de Alarcón (Madrid)

Likewise, you may revoke your consent to the processing of your data at any time, notwithstanding TechRules' right to terminate the relevant agreement or transaction if such data is essential to ensure successful relations.
If you wish to exercise your rights to access, correct, delete or oppose the processing of your personal data under the terms set forth by law, you must send a written request, together with a readable copy of your Identity Card or any other identification document, to TechRules' Customer Service Department at the address indicated above.

You expressly authorise TechRules to use your data to offer and sell products and services and carry out marketing activities, either in general or in accordance with your personal profile. Such marketing activities may be carried out by electronic mail or other equivalent forms of electronic communication and shall refer to TechRules products or services that are similar to those initially purchased by you. Moreover, notwithstanding the provisions regarding marketing communications sent by email or other equivalent means, if you do not wish to receive marketing communications, please send an email to the following address: info@mytadvisor.com stating your name and the number of your Identity Card or other identification document. In any event, you will be given the option to oppose the processing of your data for marketing purposes, by following a simple free-of-charge procedure in all marketing communications sent to you.

You expressly authorise TechRules to disclose or provide such data to companies belonging to the TechRules group, which may be located in the European Economic Area or elsewhere, including countries which may not offer a level of protection equivalent to that existing in the European Economic Area, for the same purpose as indicated above, including the submission of marketing communications regarding TechRules' products and services by any means, including electronic mail or other equivalent means and hereby expressly authorise such companies to use electronic mail or an equivalent means for that purpose. You are hereby informed that disclosure shall occur immediately upon your acceptance of this Privacy Policy. To view the list of companies belonging to the TechRules group please visit www.techrules.com. TechRules recommends that you review the website on a regular basis.

Moreover, you expressly acknowledge and agree that in order to ensure services are correctly provided, TechRules may be required to make your data or part thereof available to third party service providers of TechRules located in the European Economic Area or in other countries, some of which may not offer a level of protection equivalent to that existing in the European Economic Area.

Finally, you hereby acknowledge and agree that TechRules may disclose your personal data to supervisory authorities, if required under applicable regulations.
